Martha Ella “Marty” Rodi

Martha Ella “Marty” Rodi, 87, of Avondale Estates died March 24, 2009.

Martha was born in Chicago, IL in 1922 to William and Helen Menzler and married Albino Rodeghiero in 1944.

She was one of the “Rosie-the-Riveters” who worked in the factories during WWII.

The family moved to Atlanta, GA in 1951, shortened their name to Rodi and were owners of motorcycle dealerships in the area for many years.

Marty was active in the Avondale Garden Club, Rabun Gap-Nacoochee Guild, International Twins Club, Eastern Star and she was a Cub Scout and Girl Scout leader. Marty enjoyed bowling, tennis, dancing and motorcycling. She was a life-long Presbyterian and, more recently, joined Christ Church in Norcross, GA.

She is survived by her children; Maria Rodeghiero, Beno Rodi and wife, Robin, Bonnie Rodi and her husband, Mike Church, and Victor Rodi, Sr.

Grandchildren; Allen Rodi, Lance Ball and wife Cyndy, John Rodi and wife Tiffany, Melanie Hill and husband Leonard, Victor Rodi, Jr. and wife Jennifer and Rachael Davis.

Great-grandchildren; Sarah Beth, Brittany, Josh, and Victor, III.

A “Celebration of Life” will be held on Saturday, April 11 from 4:00 to 8:00PM at the Avondale Estates Clubhouse. Rev. David D. Seifried will speak.

For more information and directions, please call Maria at 1 (800) 782-1846 or e-mail Bonnie at bonnie_rodii@comcast.net.

Marty was a wonderful wife and mother and was loved by everyone!
